

BARRE LOST TO QUEEN CITY

Good Game at Rangers' Field.
Score 4 to 3.

FINE FIELDING STUNTS.

Visitors Touched Up Scampini Rather Hard and the Locals Were Rather Strong with the Willow Also.

Barre took the count yesterday afternoon at Rangers' field, when a bunch of nine baseball messengers from Burlington, styling themselves the Queen City team, nosed out a 4 to 3 victory. Although there were few sensational individual stunts pulled off, there were many exciting situations and it was anybody's game up to the last ball pitched in the ninth inning.

Scampini was on the slab for the locals for the first seven innings and was touched up for seven safe ones during that time. At the beginning of the eighth, he was replaced by Carriek, who seemed to have the sign on the visiting swatmen. Gosselin, who did the box work for the Queen City aggregation, had all kinds of control when hits would have meant runs for the Barre team. All three pitchers received splendid support.

Barre started the run getting in the first, when Scampini was safe at first on an error by De Lorma, advanced to second on L. Wright's grounder to short and scored on a single by Lee into left field. The visitors came back in the next round with two. Fisher first hit to center and crossed the pan when the ball rolled through L. Wright's legs into the bushes beyond. De Lorma then hit safely to right, scoring on Canning's single to center.

Barre's next tally came in the sixth, when L. Wright crossed the rubber, after singling to the left garden, and reaching third on an error by Canning. A slow grounder to second enabled him to come home. Previous to this, in the fifth, the Burlington team had added a couple more to the sheet on a series of free passes, errors and wild pitches.

As there was no more scoring by either side until the last inning, the locals were two scores to the bad at the opening of the ninth. In their half, with two men down, Fowle lined out a two-bagger to left field, incidentally reviving the hopes of the fans. Maiden followed with a safe one to right, which scored Fowle. Gosselin was sent in to bat for Carriek and lifted the first ball offered him over into the left fielder's waiting glove, and the jig was up. The score:

Utterly Wretched

Nervous Prostration Long Endured Before Remedy Was Found.
Miss Minerva Reindinger, Upper Bern, Pa., writes: "For several years I had nervous prostration, and was utterly wretched. I lived on bread and beef tea because my stomach would not retain anything else. I took many remedies, but obtained no relief until I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, when I began to gain at once. Am now cured."
Pure, rich blood makes good, strong nerves, and this is why Hood's Sarsaparilla, which purifies and enriches the blood, cures so many nervous diseases. Get it today in usual liquid form, or chocolate tablets called Sarsatabs.

Notes on the Game.

Some say it was the best exhibition seen at Rangers' field this year.

Fowle was there with the merchandise. Besides being a tower of strength behind the bat, he tickled Gosselin for a pair of safe ones, one of them a two-sacker.

The game merited a much larger attendance. Some of those fans who took in and were "took in" at the Copeland series should have waited.

Hart robbed Maiden of a hit in the third, when he made a one-handed scoop of Willie's swift grounder over second. It was a difficult feat and Hart (?) deserved the hand which the crowd gave him.

Hamilton had a strong wing, and the locals took few chances with him on bases. He lost several put-outs, however, by misjudging foul flies. He was invariably late in locating them.

DeLorma's catch of Gabelloni's drive in the ninth saved the day for Queen City.

The Barre team is scheduled to play at St. Albans to-day.

Scampini did not show his usual form.

Blair averted a record of four straight strikes-outs by lifting an easy fly to Fowle in the eighth.

High flies were hard to field, on account of the wind.

Those youthful foul chasers should be kept behind the wire. There was work mapped out for Restelli yesterday, when they swarmed along the base lines.

After Hart had fanned in the first inning, Hamilton came up and banged out a clean hit into center, which netted him two bases.

Scampini, R. Wright and Maiden pulled off a fast double in the fourth. The Burlington ball tossers left the village in a blaze of glory. Speed the parting guest!

HAMON DENIES BRIBE STORY

Tells Investigators He Never Talked With Gore

OF McMURRAY LAND DEAL

Saw Him Once in Secret—Says It Was Senator Who Closed the Doors, Though He Doesn't Know Why.

Muskogee, Okla., Aug. 6.—With United States Senator Thomas F. Gore, was serving his charge that he was offered a bribe of $25,000 or $50,000 to influence his action in Congress and with Jake L. Hamon, accused by the senator of having offered the bribe, denying that he had ever done such a thing. The investigation of the Oklahoma Indian land deals by the committee of national House of Representatives simmered down a mass of denials yesterday.

For four hours, former chairman of the Oklahoma Republican state committee, entered a continuous series of denials relative to his alleged relations to what are known as the McMurray contracts, by which, according to Senator Gore, $30,000,000, or 10 per cent. of $30,000,000, was to be realized from the sale of Indian lands to a New York syndicate to be diverted from the Indians in the shape of attorneys' fees.

Hamon also denied Congressman C. E. Creager's charge that he (Hamon) had suggested that an interest in the contracts might be available to the Congressman if the latter helped remove opposition to the congressional approval.

Among Hamon's denials were the following:

That he at any time had been closeted with Senator Gore, in the senator's office at Washington to urge the approval of the contracts.

That he had ever mentioned Vice-President Sherman, Senator Charles Curtis of Kansas, or Congressman H. S. McGuire of Oklahoma, as being interested in the contracts, as charged by Senator Gore.

That he had ever spoken of a bribe to anybody about any legislation or that he ever was interested in the McMurray contracts.

That at the time the contracts were being discussed he had called upon Congressman Creager on the telephone at Washington asking for an appointment, but he said Mr. Creager had called him up. Mr. Creager previously had testified that Hamon asked an appointment, at which the "interest" in the contracts was spoken of.

Interrogating the witness Congressman E. W. Saunders, a member of the commission, said: "Now, Mr. Hamon, you have denied the testimony of all of the witnesses who have preceded you. You have branded the assertions of the senator, his brother, his clerk, and the congressman, as being absolutely false. It would appear from your denials that a conspiracy had been entered into, grossly to misrepresent you. How do you account for that?"

"That's beyond my power of conjecture," replied Hamon. "I have never had one penny's interest in the McMurray contracts and never offered a bribe to anyone."

"It is barely possible that I did see Senator Gore on May 6, last, when he says the offer of a bribe was made. I saw him frequently, but at this time I believe, he took me up into the library of the Senate and closed the doors. He wanted to talk over with me his coming campaign and see how I could help him out financially. Although I am a Republican and he a Democrat, I was in the habit of helping him out."

Asked to explain some of his business dealings, Hamon said several years ago at Lawton, Oklahoma, when the government decided to sell at public auction some Indian lands, he, Senator Gore, and others, entered into a combination not to bid against each other so that the property might be obtained cheap. All of them secured some land, he said.

The other night, Bill Joyce, a former major league star, forgot to close his saloon at the proper hour, and has lost his license as a result.

Neal Ball, the first American player to make a triple play unassisted, is to be let out by the Indians, who have asked for waivers.

The Woodville team, which will line up against the Italians to-day, is said to have a long-limbed pitcher with a big assortment.

SPAIN FEARS AN UPRISING

Many Troops are Sent to San Sebastian

A DEMONSTRATION THERE

By the Clericals Threatened—This Despite Prohibition of Premier—Carlists, It Is Said, Rousing Followers to Violence.

Madrid, Aug. 6.—Alarmed by fears that the proposed demonstration of the clerical forces at San Sebastian, the summer capital, will assume the character of an uprising, the government yesterday began to rush troops into San Sebastian. A regiment of Hussars left Madrid for San Sebastian yesterday morning, followed by another regiment of cavalry and two battalions of Chausseurs. A regiment of infantry was also ordered to San Sebastian from Victoria. Both General Weyler, the captain general of Catalonia, and Count Sagasta, the minister of the interior, will go to San Sebastian to be in immediate charge in case of disorder. The government believes that the Carlists and the members of the religious orders, which are numerous in northern Spain, are openly inciting their followers to violence. The governors of the Basque provinces and the adjoining province of Navarre yesterday issued orders to the mayors of all the municipalities in these provinces to warn the Roman Catholics against assembling or entering the city of San Sebastian with arms, and that the most energetic measures would be taken to repress any attempt at a manifestation.

Since the government has ordered the railroad companies not to furnish special trains for the proposed demonstration at San Sebastian Sunday, the Catholic adherents at Bilbao are already commencing to leave for the summer capital upon the ordinary trains. Feeling in the city runs high. The committee, which is organizing the demonstration, yesterday sent a telegram of protest to the king against the interference of the authorities with the manifestation and also issued a statement urging their followers individually to telegraph similar messages to King Alfonso. A telegram of sympathy was also sent to the pope.

Rome, Aug. 6.—Cardinal Merry del Val, the papal secretary of state, received in audience yesterday Marquis de Gonzalez, councillor of the Spanish embassy at the Vatican, who is in charge of the embassy since the recall of Marquis de Ojeda. There was a long discussion of the Spanish situation, at the close of which both Cardinal Merry del Val and Marquis de Gonzalez expressed hopes that a solution would be found which would avoid further friction.

TURN THEM OUT, SAYS BRYAN.

Democrats Who Voted for Lorimer Should Be Read Out of Party.

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 6.—In a statement published in his paper yesterday, in reference to the meeting held recently in Lincoln, Ill., to protest against legislative corruption, William J. Bryan declared that the Democratic legislators who voted to elect William Lorimer to the United States Senate should be read out of the Democratic party. "Any Democrat who voted for Lorimer for 'patriotic' reasons ought to be retired to private life and kept there long enough to learn what patriotism means," said Mr. Bryan. "It is almost as dangerous to have a fool in the legislature as a knave. A Democratic legislator who could be convinced that he was performing a patriotic duty in voting for Lorimer could be persuaded to do anything desired by a lobby—provided the same patriotic arguments were used. He is not fit for any representative position—it is hardly safe to allow him to run at large. Turn them out! The party cannot pause to defend those who are guilty or who, if innocent, have aroused suspicion which can never be removed."

Mr. Rawn was found dead in his home at Winnetka on the morning of July 29.

Howard E. Taylor, fireman, of Port Jervis.

TUCKER COMES OUT FOR BASS.

Open Letter From Former President of Dartmouth For Progressive.

Lehann, N. H., Aug. 6.—Dr. W. J. Tucker, formerly president of Dartmouth college, has written as follows to Robert P. Bass, progressive candidate for the Republican nomination for governor:

"When, in the early spring, I signed a request that you would allow the use of your name in connection with the governorship, I did so because it seemed to me that you were the logical candidate of the party, reckoning from its last platform. I did so, too, out of respect for your personal qualities as shown in your political record. Now that you are formally before the people as a candidate, it would have given me pleasure, had I been able, to preside at a meeting called in the interest of your candidacy. Unable to do this, I write to you openly, as offering the simplest way of fulfilling the duty which the change in the method of nominations for public office imposes directly upon the citizens of the state."

He and his household escaped. The dead, five men and two women, were all foreigners. They were asleep at the time and were all suffocated by smoke as they lay in their beds.
